The Senior Class of 1937

President	Fred Molinary
Vice-president	Terence O'Donovan
Secretary	Florine Brooks
Treasurer	Lois Hillman

Motto: "Not finished; just begun."

Flower: Rose

Colors: Green and white

1936

1936

William Barker Jr.

"Bill"

"Why it's marvelous!"

Bill is a quiet and studious young man. He was secretary of the Sophomore class and vice-president of the Civics Club. Since Bill spends most of his time experimenting, we feel sure that he will be a great inventor some day.

Ambition--To be a millionaire

Hobby--Chemical and electrical experimenting

Greatest fault--Traveling

Florine Brooks

"Flo"

"Aw stop!"

Florine's quiet ways and congenial manner have gained her a host of friends. She joined our class in her Freshman year and by steadily working, she now has the honor of being Salutatorian, secretary of the Senior class, and also of the Dramatic Club, of which she is a prominent member.

Ambition--Air hostess

Hobby--Reading French to other people

Greatest fault--Too quiet

1936

1936

Anson Evans
"Dock"
"I reckon."

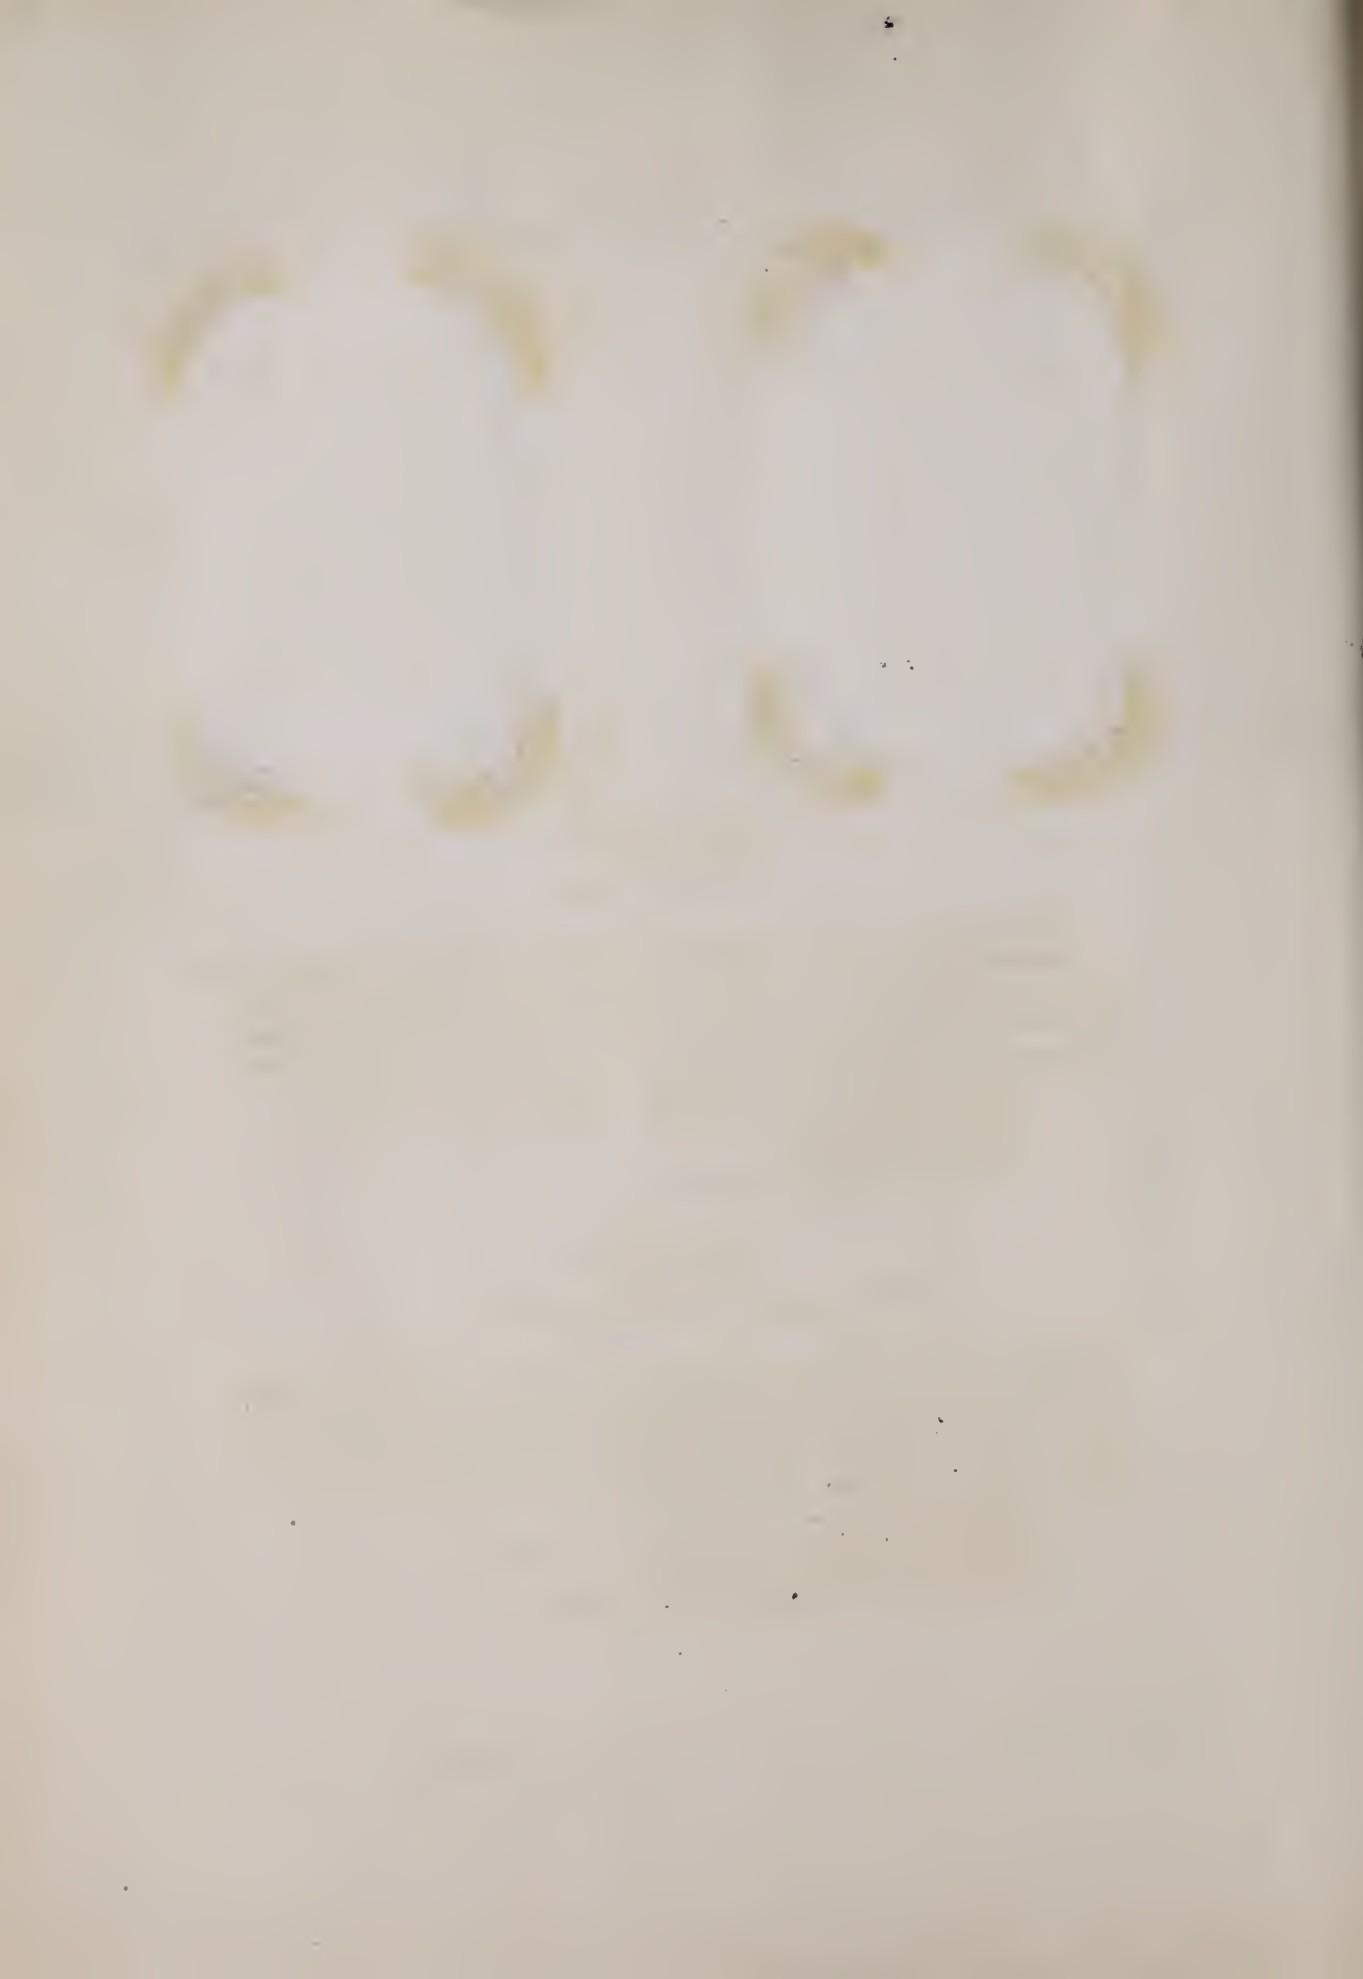

Anson's quiet but forceful ways have gained him a host of friends in S. P. H. S. After the fashion of other Dwina boys he has established a record for himself in football for three years. The school is losing a fine fellow when Anson graduates.

Ambition--To be a professional football player
Hobby--Football
Greatest fault--Too quiet

Monroe Evans
"Buck"
"I'll be dog-gone."

Monroe came from Dwina three years ago and has proved his worth. He has participated in various athletics and other school activities. He is vice-president of the Science Club. We have never seen another with his determination.

Ambition--To be a great ball player
Hobby--Playing base-ball
Greatest fault--Wandering around

1936

1936

Warren Evans
"Tator-bug"
"I don't know."

Warren came to St. Paul High from Dwina, Virginia. He is president of the Civics Club, Sports Editor of St. Paul Hi Lights, a member of the Civics Club Band, and has been a member of the football squad for two years. He also has an important part in the Senior play.

Ambition--To be a second Rubinoff

Hobby--Fiddlin'

Greatest fault--Courting

Edith Harding
"Slyfty"
"More fun, more people killed;"

Edith is one of the six who has stayed with us through school. Although she hasn't been very active in athletics, she has always done her part. She has been an active member of the Dramatic Club, has won many friends, and we hope success will be hers.

Ambition--To be a success

Hobby--Capturing hearts

Greatest fault--Too fast (with an edge)

Virginia Harris

"Jenny-U"

"So what?"

Virginia left us her sophomore year to return her Junior year. She has been an active member of the Dramatic Club for three years, is photograph editor of the annual, and is an athletic "fan". Hope to hear your orchestra soon "Jenny".

Ambition--To lead an orchestra like Benny Goodman.

Hobby--Singing

Greatest fault--Laughing with Jenny Long!

Velma Hensley

"Curly"

"I don't care."

Velma came to us in her Sophomore year from Coeburn. It can truthfully be said of her that she has served as an anchor to us. Being quiet, soft spoken, and very efficient she will be a success in life. She is business manager of the St. Paul High Lights.

Ambition--Teacher.

Hobby--Befriending bewildered Freshmen.

Greatest fault--Working too hard.

1936

1936

Lois Hillman
"Goofy"
"Hooray for our side!"

Lois has taken active interest in every school activity. She has held numerous offices; including treasurer of Senior class, secretary-treasurer of G. A. A., captain of the basketball team for two years, and editor-in-chief of the Annual. Her kindness, good sportsmanship will not be forgotten.

Ambition--To be a successful business woman.

Hobby--Finding friends.

Greatest fault--Two-timing her boy friends.

Madeline Holbrook
"Mat"
"Aw heck."

Madeline is another of the six who have been together for eleven years. She is a faithful member of the Dramatic Club and had an important part in the Senior play. Although, never participating in athletics she has always shown a fine school spirit.

Ambition--Home Economics teacher.

Hobby--Playing tennis.

Greatest fault--Wiggling.

James S. Lane
"Red"
"I don't know."

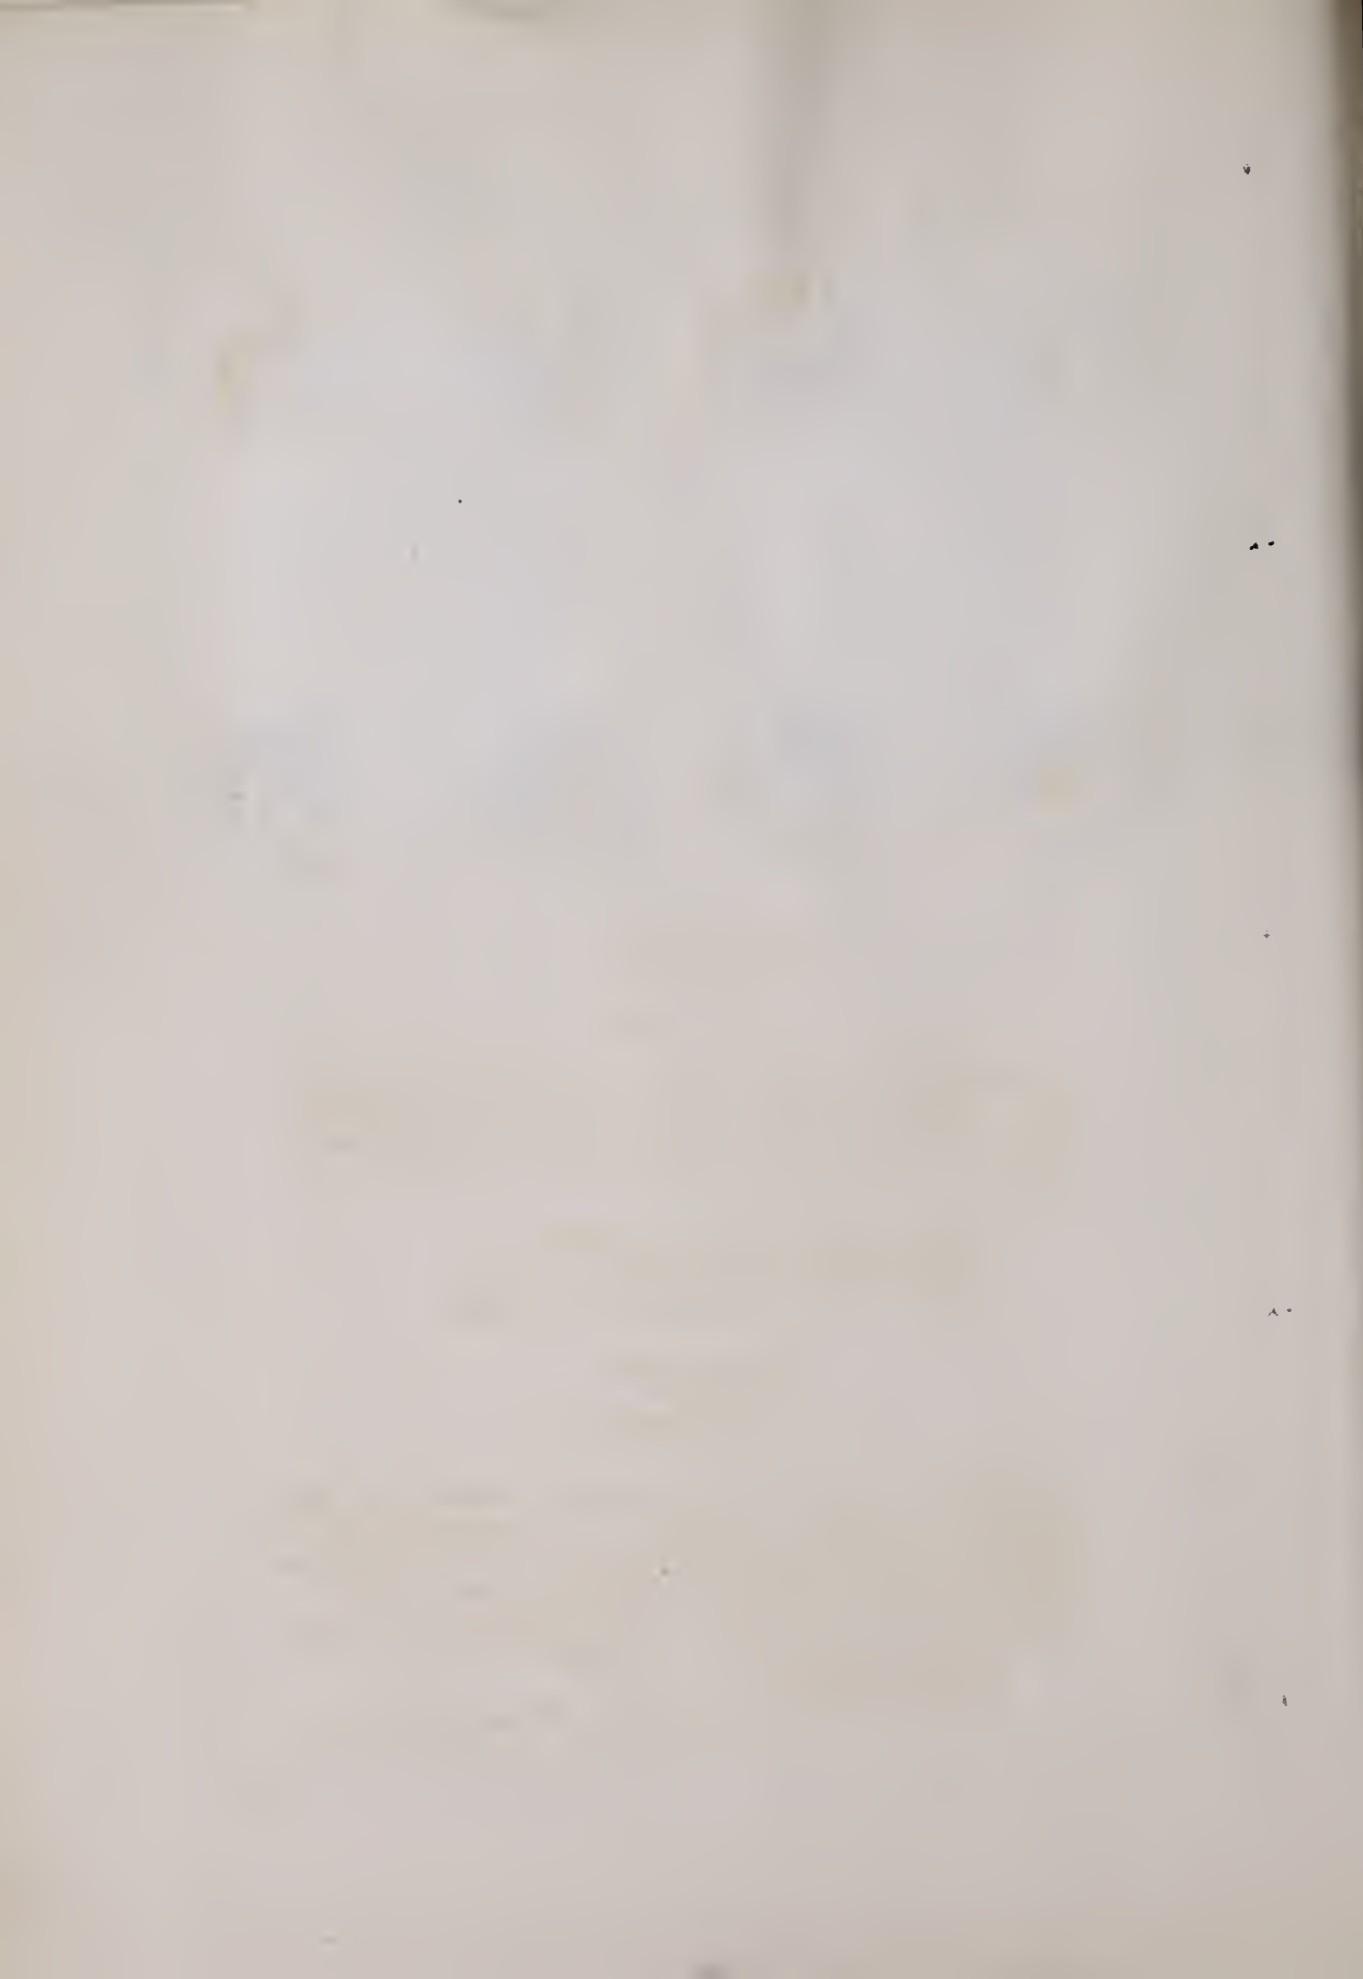

Sam joined us four years ago. He is a very unusual chap with red hair and a knack for talking fast. He has always been willing to do his part regardless of what it is. We will not forget him easily.

Ambition--To become a G-man.
Hobby--Reading Wild West novels.
Greatest fault--Talking too much.

Virginia Long
"Jenny-V"
"Oh, boy!"

Virginia, one of the six original members of the class, is an active member of the Dramatic Club and had the lead in the Senior play. She was a cheerleader in '36. Virginia is popular and we hope that she will be another Amelia Earhart some day.

Ambition--To be an aviatrix.
Hobby--Mimicing.
Greatest fault--Laughing in Chemistry class.

Sam Marshall
"Sacc"
"You're tellin' I."

Sam joined our class in the sixth grade. His sportmanship during three years of football and basketball has gained for him many friends. His pleasant, "Good morning" given with a smile is known throughout this territory. He is joke editor of the Annual.

Ambition--To be a football coach.

Hobby--Exploring caves.

Greatest fault--Talking too much.

Fred Molinary
"Steve"
"Boy, that's larpin'!"

Fred is a nice, congenial chap and he has proved that he can stand the test. He is president of the Senior class, an active member of the Sports Club, played football for two years, and participated in various school activities.

Ambition--To be an orchestra director.

Hobby--Playing the piano.

Greatest fault--Popping up at unexpected places.

Teronco O'Donovan
"Terry"
"Shoot!"

Terry joined our class in the seventh grade, and since then has led in scholastics. He is ~~val~~dictorian of his class and has served as president of the Freshman class, Junior class, and athletic association, and as vice-president of the Senior class and the Dramatic Club.

Ambition--To become superintendent of schools of Wise County, so that he may fire some of the teachers who picked on him.

Hobby--Working crossword puzzles.

Greatest fault--Losin' and forgettin'.

Archie Stallard
"Wimpy"
"I'll be D---!"

Archie joined our class this year, after an absence of one term. It was, indeed, a gain for the Senior class because his humorous nature has brightened many a day for us. He was a member of the football squad for three years.

Ambition--To play a harmonica like D. F. Bailey.

Hobby--Pitching horseshoes,

Greatest fault--Staying out late at night.

i

Robert Vance
"Bob"
"What's that English about?"

Bob's frank manner and attractive smile have won friends with whom he is a general favorite. He has played football and basketball for three years. He is president of the Dramatic Club and has taken an active interest in other activities.

Ambition--To excel Frank Buck as a big game hunter.

Hobby--Fishing
Greatest fault--Talking to Virginia Dare in Mr. Cox's room.

Charlic Davidson and Archic Stallard, whose pictures do not appear here, contributed to the success of the team.

Seven seniors contributed to the success of the St. Paul football squad this year. The team played eight games and made a splendid showing.

Coach Faillman and his assistant, Coach Francisco, deserve credit for putting a well coached eleven on the field.

Captain Sam Marshall is to be succeeded by Ralph Slaughter who is to captain the team for 1937-38.

1937 GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Lois Hillman-----Captain
Earl R. Hillman-----Coach

The girls squad of '36 and '37 under the expert leadership of their coach, Mr. Earl Hillman, and their captain, Lois Hillman, won 13 out of 19 games.

Carolyn Cure has been elected captain of '37-'38.

1937 BOYS BASKETBALL

Standing: Coach Francisco

Bob Vance, who is not in the picture helped contribute to the success of the team.

The St. Paul boys coached by Mr. Francisco and captained by Raymond Cure won seven out of sixteen games. With only two letter men returning, the St. Paul High boys found themselves with great disadvantages when matched against the seasoned teams of the county. Next year there will be six letter men returning and a strong team is anticipated. Under the leadership of Captain Jack Marshall the best season in years is expected.
